Directions

From Penarth:

Make your way down to the A4323 roundabout (IKEA would be straight across) and turn right onto the A4323. Leave at the slip road before the tunnel, take the first exit at the mini roundabout, then the first right. We are a little way down on the left.

From Cardiff:

Make your way to Cardiff Bay. As you pass by the Millennium Centre on your left, take the next left into Stuart Street. Follow Stuart Street, and you'll come across Havannah Street on your left. We are down there on the left.

From the North, East and West of Cardiff:

If you are coming from further afield, then the best route to take is the M25, then at Junction 33 follow the A4323 all the way to the bay. Leave at the slip road before the tunnel, take the first exit at the mini roundabout, then the first right. We are a little way down on the left.
